Requirement under the Act

Disclosure

(i)
The particulars of its organization, functions & duties

The National Anti-profiteering Authority (NAA) is the institutional mechanism under GST law to check the unfair profiteering activities by any supplier registered under GST. The Authority’s core function is to ensure that the benefits of the reduction in GST rates on goods and/or services made by GST Council and/or proportional change in the Input tax credit is passed on to the ultimate consumers and recipient respectively by way of commensurate reduction in the prices by the suppliers.

(ii)
The powers & duties of its officers and employees

The National Anti-profiteering Authority is a five-membered body, headed by the Chairman (equivalent to a rank of Secretary to the Government of India) with four technical members (present/former commissioners of State tax or central tax departments). An officer not below the rank of Additional Commissioner (working in the Directorate General of Anti-profiteering) shall be the Secretary to the Authority.

The Rule 127 of the CGST Rules, 2017 enlisted the powers and duties of the NAA.

CGST Rule 127: Duties of the Authority: It shall be the duty of the Authority,-

(i) to determine whether any reduction in the rate of tax on any supply of goods or services or the benefit of input tax credit has been passed on to the recipient by way of commensurate reduction in prices;

(ii) to identify the registered person who has not passed on the benefit of reduction in the rate of tax on supply of goods or services or the benefit of input tax credit to the recipient by way of commensurate reduction in prices;

(iii) to order,

(a) reduction in prices;

(b) return to the recipient, an amount equivalent to the amount not passed on by way of commensurate reduction in prices along with interest at the rate of eighteen per cent. from the date of collection of the higher amount till the date of the return of such amount or recovery of the amount not returned, as the case may be, in case the eligible person does not claim return of the amount or is not identifiable, and depositing the same in the Fund referred to in section 57;

(c) imposition of penalty as specified in the Act; and

(d) cancellation of registration under the Act.

(iv) to furnish a performance report to the Council by the tenth day of the close of each quarter.
The procedure followed in the decision making process, including channels of supervision and accountability.

The Standing Committee shall, within a period of two months from the date of the receipt of a written application, in such form and manner as may be specified by it, from an interested party or from a Commissioner or any other person, examine the accuracy and adequacy of the evidence provided in the application to determine whether there is prima-facie evidence to support the claim of the applicant that the benefit of reduction in the rate of tax on any supply of goods or services or the benefit of input tax credit has not been passed on to the recipient by way of commensurate reduction in prices. All applications from interested parties on issues of local nature shall first be examined by the State level Screening Committee and the Screening Committee shall, upon being satisfied that the supplier has contravened the provisions of section 171, forward the application with its recommendations to the Standing Committee for further action.

Rule 129 of the CGST Rules, 2017 prescribes the procedure.

Rule 129. Initiation and conduct of proceedings.—(1) Where the Standing Committee is satisfied that there is a prima-facie evidence to show that the supplier has not passed on the benefit of reduction in the rate of tax on the supply of goods or services or the benefit of input tax credit to the recipient by way of commensurate reduction in prices, it shall refer the matter to the Director General of Anti-profiteering for a detailed investigation.

(2) The Director General of Anti-profiteering shall conduct investigation and collect evidence necessary to determine whether the benefit of reduction in the rate of tax on any supply of goods or services or the benefit of input tax credit has been passed on to the recipient by way of commensurate reduction in prices.

(3) The Director General of Anti-profiteering shall, before initiation of the investigation, issue a notice to the interested parties containing, inter alia, information on the following, namely:

(a) The description of the goods or services in respect of which the proceedings have been initiated;
(b) Summary of the statement of facts on which the allegations are based; and
(c) The time limit allowed to the interested parties and other persons who may have information related to the proceedings for furnishing their reply.

(4) The Director General of Anti-profiteering may also issue notices to such other persons as deemed fit for a fair enquiry into the matter.

(5) The Director General of Anti-profiteering shall make available the evidence presented to it by one interested party to the other interested parties, participating in the proceedings;

(6) The Director General of Anti-profiteering shall complete the investigation within a period of three months of the receipt of the reference from the Standing Committee or within such extended period not exceeding a further period of three months for reasons to be recorded in writing as may be allowed by the Authority and, upon completion of the investigation, furnish to the Authority, a report of its findings along with the relevant records.

(iv) The norms set by it for the discharge of its functions.

6. There are multiple ways through which aggrieved consumers or suppliers of goods and services can register their complaints against profiteering.
